Company Description:

F2 Capital is the leading seed stage venture capital fund for frontier technology companies in Israel. At F2, we believe that the most scalable and impactful venture investments are software-enabled businesses that harness big data, AI, and Connectivity; unlock innovation starved markets; and engage customers on emerging platforms. F2 fills a gap in the market in Israel to back the best of these companies before traditional VCs are ready to invest. Eddy Shalev, Jonathan Saacks and Barak Rabinowitz lead F2 Capital, providing exceptional founders with the guidance, network, and capital that it takes to scale into global leaders. F2 Capital runs The Junction, Israel's first pre-seed startup program. For more info please visit www.f2vc.com
