Reference:	Meron Capital - Analyst
Company Name:	Meron Capital
Company Type:	Venture Capital Fund
Location:	Haarbaa 30th Hagag Tower South 30th Floor
Duration of stay:	Anywhere between 4 and 6 months

Company Description:

Meron Capital is a $70M early stage fund investing in innovative technology companies in Israel. We invest in distinctive leaders and strategic thinkers who apply advanced, proprietary technologies to a clear business need. At Meron, we truly believe in our entrepreneurs and provide them with guidance, advice and business connections, while keeping them at the driver's seat and fully trusting their leadership. Leveraging our strong network of business partners, we actively work to connect founders with business partners, clients and strategic advisors in the US and Europe. Our main areas of focus are Enterprise Software, SaaS, Cyber Security, IT Infrastructure, Connected Devices, Fintech and Marketing Tech.

Job Description and Tasks:

We are looking for an intern to help with due diligence processes, industry analysis and ad-hoc research. The candidate fully integrates the Meron Capital investment during the length of his internship, and will help in the decision making for new investment opportunities. The intern will also have the opportunity to present his research and findings to the team, assist in the pre-screening of deals, and help with portfolio support and fund marketing.

Essential Requirements:

The ideal candidate must express strong interest in technology and trends and a desire to dive into specific areas of technology, a strong personal network, and outstanding interpersonal skills. He must be able to perform well in an unstructured environment as well as not be afraid to take initiative. Experience with technology, due-diligence, financial modeling and market research is preferred.
